

Ceres, Inc.
(Boston, MA)

Total Award: $125,000 over 1 year

Sustainable Governance Project

To support the Sustainable Governance Project which enlists major institutional investors to engage in shareholder strategies to encourage action by companies to address global warming. Ceres' work on climate risk forms part of a larger, multi-year strategy of uniting investors worldwide to increase the accountability of corporations for the social and environmental costs and risks of their activities. Ceres will develop research reports and financial tools supporting the business case for these campaigns and will cultivate media attention to these issues in the specialized business and investment press as well as the general audience media.
